OPS GROUP LTD OPENS OFFICE IN AUSTRALIA

OPS Group Ltd is delighted to announce the establishment of a new business – OPS Group Australia Pty Ltd – a new Asia Pacific regional office based in Perth, Western Australia.

OPS Group Ltd has been developing strong links with the Far East and Australia since 2002 and has been sourcing increasing volumes of work in Western Australia. Having registered a new business in Perth, a city fast becoming known as the resources hub for the southern hemisphere, OPS Group Ltd looks forward to capturing more Asia-Pacific business in the coming months. The company also intends to access the mature oilfield experience which exists there for the benefit of their international customers.

The launch of an Asia-Pacific branch is a major part of OPS Group Ltd's newly developed five-year development plan. With offices in three different time zones OPS Group Ltd can now offer customers a more comprehensive service with direct links to all parts of the world, 24 hours a day, 6 days a week.

OPS Group Australia Pty Ltd will be opening for operations in September 2008.
